Heals Eczema In 7 Days or Less

Here is a surgeon's wonderful prescription now dispensed by pharmacists at trifling cost, that will do more towards helping you get rid of unsightly spots and skin diseases than anything you've ever tried.

Not only does this great healing antiseptic oil promote rapid and healthy healing in open sores and wounds, but boils, abscesses and ulcers that are discharging are almost immediately relieved and cleanly healed.

MAJOR ACTIVITIES FOR YEAR DISCUSSED BY DIRECTORS AT COMMERCE CLUB MEET TODAY

A round robin discussion by directors of the chamber of commerce this morning as to major activities the organization should attempt for the new chamber of commerce year revealed that members of the board held many opinions as to what the chamber should promote for the best interests of the city.

In some instances the same projects were mentioned by all of the members, indicating unanimity on some of the more important matters that should claim attention of the body.

Uniform planting of trees on streets, an auditorium, new library building, opening of Broadway north to Chapman, and straightening of Flower to Chapman, civic center at present site of Frances Willard junior high school, coliseum and park at Sixth and Olive, a Santa Ana airport, an analysis of assessed value of property in Santa Ana and the ratio of bond indebtedness, and location of a junior college in the center of a district embracing school districts in the south half of the county, were some of the things suggested.

Discussions revealed that directors hold the opinion that organization of a committee of representatives from each of the more prominent departments of city government would result in better understanding of problems confronted by each. Representatives of the city council, library board and board of education were particularly suggested for such a committee.

Later it is anticipated two or three of the suggestions will be taken up and made the objectives of the chamber for the coming year. Questionnaires also were sent out to members for the submission of suggestions and it is anticipated the members will give individual expression to their opinions as to what particular objectives the chamber should direct its attention.

The regular monthly meeting of the membership for April will be a dinner meeting, it was intimated by George Raymer, secretary. It was the impression that a better attendance of members can be induced by a dinner preceding the business of the evening. The date has not been selected yet, but it will be announced in a few days, the secretary said.

WILL INSPECT BURNED AREAS IN MOUNTAINS

Santa Ana and Orange county officials, in company with representatives from Riverside and San Bernardino counties, will inspect tomorrow the area burned over on the Santa Ana river watershed in the summer of 1927, it was announced today.

The boards of forestry from the latter two counties, with the tri-county reforestation committee, are sponsoring the tour. On account of the great value of the limited water supply available from the Santa Ana river and its tributaries, the prevention of fire on the local watersheds is regarded as a vital problem by the forestry committees.

After studying the situation, the party return to San Bernardino for lunch.

Santa Ana's "party" burglar, appeared at the Jackson court, 719 West Fourth street, last night, and stole two pocketbooks from a bed, while four women played bridge in an adjoining room, according to a report filed with the city police.

The thief cut a screen on a side window and reached through the window to take the purses from the bed, it was reported.

One of the pocketbooks was the property of Catherine Williams, 308 West Bishop street, and contained $7 in cash, a compact, and bank and check books.

The other was owned by Bernice Gohrs, 1900 South Ross street. It contained $3 in cash, according to the report.

HIGH SCHOOL SENIOR BOYS HEAR CUSHMAN

The advantages and disadvantages of being in the medical profession were outlined yesterday afternoon by Dr. R. A. Cushman in a talk made before the senior boys at the Santa Ana high school. Dr. Cushman's address was one of a series of vocational lectures which are being presented weekly to senior boys at the high school.

Dr. Cushman explained that two years of college, at least, and four or five years in a medical school after which a year's internship is required, is necessary preparation for the medical profession. He pointed out that the training is expensive with no large financial return for some years. He stated that a doctor is under a great nervous strain constantly.

Qualifications for success in this work include a love of people, sympathetic nature and a wish to be of help to one's fellowmen, as well as the years of education.

An average income of a doctor is between $8,000 and $10,000 a year, Dr. Cushman stated. He continued that highly paid physicians average from $20,000 to $25,000 annually.

He pointed out that the medical field is not crowded and that there is great opportunity for well qualified people. He mentioned the fact that there is a time immediately after becoming a full fledged physician which is called "starvation period." According to Dr. Cushman, a doctor has a chance to become a leader in the community.

COUNTY P.-T. A. PLANS SUMMER CHILD ROUNDUP

By MRS. NEAL BEISEL
Fourth District P.-T. A. Press Chairman

In many business enterprises, the "silent partner" is less of a help than a handicap, and in no case is this more true than in education. The child sent to school is just about 25 per cent equipped for the great adventure—inside his clothes. The mother has given him birth, has fed, clothed, and disciplined him according to her judgment or lack of it; the father has provided shelter and the wherewithal to supply the physical needs of the mother, and at six years of age or less unless disabled, he is sent to school. If the school improves him, the home takes the credit for his bringing up. If the school makes clear the faults and weaknesses hitherto concealed behind the sheltering walls of the home, the school receives the blame.

On the basis that the responsibility for the health of the pre-school child rests upon his parents, and that the home owes its educational partner, the school, a pupil who is an asset and not a liability, the National Congress of Parents and Teachers has called upon its 20,000 units to enlist in a summer campaign, known as "The Summer Round-up of the Children," to send to school in the entering grade a class of children free from remediable defects.

In the Fourth District (Orange county), the Parent-Teacher associations are organized under the leadership of Mrs. Fay R. Spangler, county chairman of the summer round-up, and Dr. K. H. Sutherland, county chairman of child hygiene. The Parent-Teachers are an organization will arrange many of the preliminary details of the work and will appoint representatives to be present at the examinations to give secretarial assistance the the public health nurses.

SCENE FROM "THE YOUNGEST"

Next Community Play to Be Held on April 26 at Temple Theater

When "The Youngest," next offering of the Santa Ana Community Players, opens at the Temple theater April 26 for a three-night run, there will be many in the audience who will sympathize with the situations in which Richard Winslow, the leading character, finds himself, according to Stella Jane Brubaker, director.

"Snubbed and brow-beaten, it is Richard's lot to be driven from pillar to post and told what he may or may not do by other members of the family. This is the penalty for being the youngest.

"He is ambitious to make his way as an author, but his family insists that he enter their pin factory. Then the girl arrives, a wonderful girl with a dashing presence and a keen mind. Although she is a guest, she starts to reform the family's treatment of its masculine Cinderella after she understands Richard's situation.

"Nancy, the girl, always has had her own way, always has succeeded. Will she succeed in making over the entire Winslow family? Muff Winslow, Richard's sister, is so sure Nancy will fail that she makes a wager to that effect.

"But youth will be served. And when that youth is a beautiful girl with unlimited spirits and enthusiasm, and can enlist a shrewd attorney on her side, well, the climax is startling to say the least. A complete change in the destinies of the family and their outlook on the world takes place," the director said.

"The Youngest" will open April 26 and will play for three successive nights. General sale of tickets will start next Monday at the Santa Ana book store.

BOLERO STYLES

A printed bolero tops a moulded-form cherry colored frock and gives a quaint note of style. The same print makes a cute hat to top the outfit.

MEDIUM BRIMS

Hats of medium brim are tremendously stylish and a boon to the older woman. But the brim must be irregular, preferably flaring over one side.

EXCHANGE CLUB ENJOYS DANCE. SONG PROGRAM

Enlivened by a program of Spanish songs and dances, and entertained by what is believed to be Orange county's youngest dance team, the Exchange club celebrated ladies' day yesterday, when wives and friends of the members gathered at Ketter's cafe.

Gloria Clem, 5, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Clem, 306 Orange street, and Thomas Carroll Sutton, 6, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. V. Sutton, Orange, were the youthful pair who scored a hit with their audience. Mrs. Sutton accompanied them. Miss Clem gave a solo dance after her appearance with her partner, and Thomas Sutton gave a short reading in which he defended the right of a man to put his hands in his pockets.

Mrs. Charlotta Cruz and Miss Felipa Ybarra, both of Santa Ana, received considerable applause when they whirled in the steps of the jota, a Spanish dance, for which Miss Ruth Frothingham, high school instructor, provided the music. Mrs. Cruz sang "Estrellita," accompanied by Miss Frothingham and Sol Gonzales, who played the violin. Miss Ybarra presented a solo dance, "Jarabe."

Gene Douglas, president of the club, presided, and introduced Mrs. Mildred Ricciardi, who is in charge of work at the Mexican welfare center sponsored by the organization. Mrs. Ricciardi gave a report of the accomplishments in connection with the project.

Bob Mosher, Glendale Exchangeite, was a guest of the club and outlined plans for the state convention to be held at Fresno in May.

Stop Bad Breath

People afflicted with bad breath find quick relief through Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets. The pleasant, sugar-coated tablets are taken for bad breath by all who know them.

Dr. Edwards' Olive Tablets act gently but firmly on the bowels and liver, stimulating them to natural action, clearing the blood and gently purging the entire system. They do that which dangerous calomel does without any of the bad after effects.

Olive Tablets bring no gripping pain or any disagreeable effects. Dr. F. M. Edwards discovered the formula after 20 years of practice among patients afflicted with bowel and liver complaint, with the attendant bad breath.

Olive Tablets are purely a vegetable compound mixed with olive oil; you will know them by their olive color. Take nightly for a week and note the effect. 15c, 30c, 60c. All Druggists.—Adv.

R. E. Cowman, of Los Angeles, has purchased the Bristol Drug store, at the corner of Fourth and Bristol streets, from N. L. Jean, it was announced today.

While Cowman comes here direct from Los Angeles, his former activity in the operation of a drug store was at Sapulpa, Oklahoma, where he was identified with his father in the drug business for many years.

The new owner has taken charge of the local business and will move his family here from Los Angeles. Jean, it was said, has no plans for the immediate future.

CLIPPER SHIP DAYS RECALLED FOR B. AND P. W.

Some of the romance and perils of the old days of clipper ships were recalled for the entertainment of Business and Professional Women's club members Monday when Captain Charles C. Oakes, who once commanded such ships, spoke at their weekly meeting in St. Ann's Inn.

The clubwomen had looked forward to this program and found that the reality exceeded their expectations, as they listened with breathless interest to tales of the days that are gone, never to return. Captain Oakes prefaced his talk with diagrams showing the difference between types of sailing vessels, sloops, schooners, barkentines, etc., and illustrated what was meant by the term "clipper ships," that once ruled the waves.

He spoke of Dana's "Two Years Before the Mast" as giving a graphic picture of the times, and told of the steady traffic between the wheat lands of California and the markets of Europe.

"Ships of those days were given beautiful and romantic names," he explained. "Snow Squall, Invincible, and of course the famous Flying Cloud that made the record time for clipper ships, and that has been commemorated in the speed world of today, by having an automobile named for her."

Describes Harbor

And then the speaker described the harbor at San Francisco as he had known it, telling how in 1852, when he was sailing with a cargo of wheat for Antwerp, there were more than eighty ships within the harbor.

That was a memorable trip for him, and he told of the voyage on which she shipped as third officer, with his brother as his superior in command. The trip was uneventful until they reach the River Platte (pronounced by the sailors with a long A, as he was careful to explain.) There they encountered a gale which blew steadily for five days. One by one their masts and spars were carried away, and what few sails were up, were torn to tatters. The cargo of wheat listed until the vessel was riding almost on her side. All the life boats but one were demolished, and the crew of seventeen, which included his brother's wife, had almost lost all hope of being saved, as the vessel was practically a-wash.

At the end of the fifth day a vessel was sighted as she crossed their bow, and they sent up a rocket to signal her. His story of the manner in which they were taken aboard the rescuing ship was intensely interesting. The storm had subsided so that there were no breakers, just a heavy swell that made it almost impossible for the life boats to draw near, and all had to leap for the boat as the swell brought it close to the ship's side.

They were bound for Antwerp, but landed at Cape of Good Hope, and his account of their entry into the hotel, the captain wearing only a pair of rubber boots, a Prince Albert coat and a derby hat, and all the others in even stranger garb, was exceedingly funny. When he at last reached Boston on a Nova Scotia brig, he was carrying the ship's chronometers which were saved, a cage of ten canaries which belonged to his sister-in-law and which had been rescued, and a pair of ostrich plumes, for which he had spent his last money and which were gifts for his sisters.

Sails for 18 Months

He reached home on Sunday, and on the following Saturday sailed again for 18 months on a vessel from Cardiff.

Such were some of the experiences related for the entertainment (well mixed with awe) of the Business Women, and at the close of his talk his wife, Mrs. Oakes, who was also a guest of the club, extended an invitation for the members to visit them in their home, and there hear more of his adventures, and see the pictures of some of his vessels.

Other matters of interest at the meeting included a surprise handkerchief shower for the president, Mrs. Laura Murray, in honor of her birthday, and also Robert L. Bisby, manager of the Inn, recognized the occasion with two special birthday cakes, one made up of candied individual cakes, to serve with the ice cream and strawberries of the dessert course, and an elaborately decorated one for Mrs. Murray to take home with her.

Miss Lena Thomas and her April committee, Miss Martha Whitson, Miss Helene Kubitz and Mrs. Susan Rutherford, have planned a party at the new Rendezvous in Balboa, for Monday, April 23, when the club may reserve the dance hall, and will enjoy a 6:30 dinner there as a preliminary to cards. A paper was passed yesterday for signatures of those who will attend, and members who were not present, are asked to telephone Miss Thomas or Miss Whitson, and make their reservations.

Mrs. Oakes, Mrs. J. Frank Burke and LaRue Phipps Mayer, formerly of this city but now of Laguna Beach, were introduced as special guests and two new members were announced, Miss Alma Carlson, former president of the Orange club, and Miss Damaris Beeman.

NEXT FLIGHT OF ALBATROSS MAY BE HERE

After voicing the opinion yesterday that this county should do everything in its power to encourage the development of aviation here, the board of supervisors today are endeavoring to make it possible for the next endurance flight of the Albatross, giant Midway City monoplane, to be made from the Orange county airport.

Sterling Price, manager of the company, stated today that he would prefer this location to any other as the site of the attempt to break the world's record, if proper arrangements can be made.

The board will ask him to meet them next Friday at 11 a. m., when it is expected that secretaries of the chambers of commerce from all Orange county cities will be present to consider the situation.

A runway a mile and one-half in length would be necessary in order to give the plane a chance to take off when loaded, according to Price. The huge ship is now in readiness for its next try at the endurance mark and may hop off within a short time, he stated.

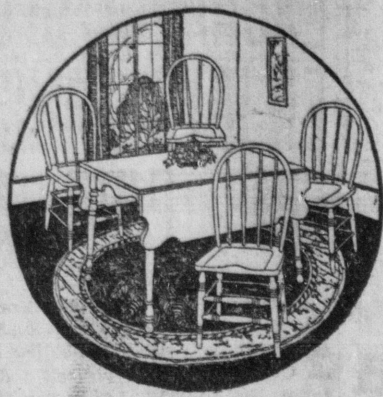

Weather conditions in Orange county are not surpassed at any other location in this region, Price declared, in commenting on the forthcoming flight. He said that a number of places are being considered for the next flight but that no definite decision has been reached.

ANNUAL SCOUT JAMBOREE TO BE APRIL 27

PROBATE FEES EAT ESTATES SAYS SPEAKER

Full arrangements have been made for the scout demonstration in connection with the annual scout jamboree which is to be held for the third time on April 27 under the auspices of the 40 and 8 with Ted Craig as general chairman, according to plans announced from headquarters today.

Every troop in the county, as well as each of the wolf cub packs is to have a part in the demonstration to be staged at the fair grounds on the evening of the 27th. A great many new events will be shown for the first time this year. The program will include an international atmosphere including the 54 countries using scouting at the present time. All troops in the county are holding rehearsals every night now preparatory to the big event of the year for scouting.

Scout demonstrations will include the building of a full size signal tower in five minutes; putting up a full size rustic bridge in 10 minutes; the building of life saving equipment and its demonstration, showing the use of the Scout neckerchief in case of an emergency and other features that have to do with the Scout program.

There will be over 1000 boys in uniform used in the grand finale at which time a number of scouts and scout leaders will receive their eagle badges. Last year's jamboree was attended by some 5000 and it is fully expected that this year's affair will draw an even larger crowd.

HOME FROM HONEYMOON

TALBERT, April 18.—Mr. and Mrs. Grove have returned from an extended trip through northern California. Mrs. Grove, formerly Mrs. Smith, has been residing in Stockton for the last several months. Both are well known here, having resided in Orange county for the last five years. They were married in Santa Rosa. During their trip they visited many of their relatives in and near Stockton. They visited Mr. Grove's father, whom he had not seen for 18 years. Mr. Grove's father, Edward Grove sr., will make his home with his son.

HOME FROM TRIP

TUSTIN, April 18.—Miss Laurie Jones and Mrs. J. A. Wilkes, of Yorba street, Tustin, have returned home after spending a week in San Diego and vicinity.

INGROWN NAIL

Turns Right Out Itself

"Outgro" is a harmless antiseptic manufactured for chiropodists. However, anyone can buy from the drug store a tiny bottle containing directions.

A few drops of "Outgro" in the crevice of the ingrowing nail reduces inflammation and pain and so toughens the tender, sensitive skin underneath the toe nail, that it can not penetrate the flesh, and the nail turns naturally outward almost over night.—Adv.

Rotarians repeatedly endorsed the entertainers, with the result that Everett has to cut his address short. He promised to return at some future date to discuss the subject of trust operations.

Miss Margaret Crist, soprano; Miss Betty Travis, violinist, and her mother, Mrs. Mae Travis, concert accompanist, provided the program of rare musical charm.

Accompanied by the other two artists, Miss Crist opened the program with the presentation of "The Nightingale," and in her first appearance, followed with "In a Sleigh," and "The Cuckoo." In response to a request for additional numbers later in the program, she sang "Indian Love Call" from Rossini and "Lo, the Gentle Lark."

Miss Travis offered as her contribution to the program, two violin solos, the execution of which indicated her as a master technician. "Chanson" (Firm) and an arrangement of two Russian folk songs were played by the young artist, appreciation of her artistry being evidenced by the rounds of applause that greeted conclusion of each number.

At conclusion of the program President W. C. Jerome announced that the new board of directors would meet with the old at the inn at 11 a. m. Tuesday, for the election of officers to serve for the coming year. The new board is composed of Jerome, B. V. Curry, W. H. DeWolfe, Charles Rutledge, Ralph Mosher, Ed Yost and Jack Campbell.

What a Rexall One Cent Sale Is

It is a sale where you buy an item at the regular price, then another item of the same kind for one cent. As an illustration: The standard price of Klenzo Dental Creme is 50c, you buy a tube at this price and by paying 1 cent more, or 51 cents, you get two tubes. Every article in this sale is a high class standard piece of merchandise, just the same as is sold every day at the regular price. This sale was developed by the United Drug Co. as an advertising plan. Rather than spend large sums of money in other ways to convince you of the merit of these goods, they are spending it on this sale in permitting us to sell you a full size package of high standard merchandise for 1 cent. It costs money to get new customers but the sacrifice in profit is justified, knowing the goods will please you.

Beavers Disappoint With Poor Showing In P. C. L.

BEAVERS AWAY TO POOR START IN FLAG CHASE

White Sox, has been the biggest failure to date. Expected to be the team's premier pitcher, Cole has been attacked savagely every time he has toiled. Lack of work seems to be the chief reason for his poor showing. Cole is not a kid and Johnson let him take his own sweet time in getting into shape here but apparently Cole took altogether too much time for his own good.

"Bevo" Lebourveau, speedy outfielder from the Athletics, has been playing great ball for the club and Jim Keesey has worked well and hit satisfactorily at first base. There were some doubts expressed about Keesey by those who watched his work at the Fair grounds.

Naturally, a keen interest has been taken in the Portland past-timers by Santa Ana fandom in view of the games that were played here during the spring and many have been bitterly disappointed by the club's slow start.

About Next Spring that Portland would just as soon return to the Fair grounds next spring if certain improvements could be made there but the thing works two ways—the Santa Ana Chamber of Commerce doesn't know whether it wants Portland unless different arrangements are made. The chamber of commerce put on a nice little party for the boys and girls and it cost about $2000 for the entertain-man. He knew what kind of a man Tunney was and knew that Tunney would understand his language. He knew he would not have to give Tunney a piece of his man to get a fight.

So the big break came. Perhaps Heeney can't beat Tunney. But regardless of the result, Harvey and Heeney will come out of it with dough and the credit of being hard workers, willing guys, square shooters and nice fellows. If there is any credit in those things in the racket.

Charley Harvey won't be broke any more. Maybe the pain will go out of that sore, crippled leg. Maybe the smile on his face will become wider, but it couldn't cover much more ground. He's been smiling all his life when another might have been crying.

Stanford Defeats Bruin Ball Team

PALO ALTO, Calif., April 18.—Ragged fielding and weakness at the plate combined to defeat University of California at Los Angeles in the baseball game with Stanford university here yesterday. The 8 to 4 victory gave Stanford the third and deciding game of the series.

ment all of which would have been o. k. had the chamber received a fifty-fifty break on the financial details and the publicity.

But Orange county as a whole didn't seem to give a rap about the camp and in the early part of the season most of the press dispatches carried Anaheim datelines which certainly didn't give Santa Ana very much fun out of a $2000 party. So maybe the Beavers will be here next year and maybe they won't. If they are, it is likely that the entire county will help finance the advertising gesture.

LOCAL TENNIS PLAYERS BLANK LEAGUE RIVALS

Santa Ana high school's powerful tennis team, coached by H. M. Davis, was well on its way toward the championship of the Coast Preparatory league today following its overwhelming victory over Long Beach, 16 to 0, on the Poly courts yesterday.

The Saints were forced to the limit to win, four of their six matches going into extra sets, but they finally made a clean sweep. Captain Stewart McPherson won first singles for the locals in two sets and the local second doubles pair also were victorious without an overtime heat.

The results follow:

First singles—McPherson (Santa Ana) beat Bartlett (Long Beach), 6-4, 6-3.

Second singles—Oglesby (Santa Ana) won from Fraser (Long Beach), 2-6, 7-5, 7-5.

Third singles—Guard (Santa Ana) defeated Wilson (Long Beach), 6-4, 3-6, 6-0.

Fourth singles—Dolan (Santa Ana) won from Shackleton (Long Beach), 6-1, 4-6, 6-3.

First doubles—Slaback and McDonald (Santa Ana) beat Rathorn and Zemm (Long Beach), 6-0, 4-6, 6-3.

Second doubles—Herron and Lindley (Santa Ana), defeated Higgins and Burlingame, (Long Beach), 6-2, 6-2.

FIELDS VICTOR

LOS ANGELES, April 18.—Jackie Fields, Los Angeles welterweight, gave Vince Dundee, of Baltimore, a 10-round drubbing at the Olympic auditorium last night.

Fields took seven of the 10 rounds, Dundee two and one was even. Jackie had things virtually all his own way. He had the Baltimore boy reeling at times.

Reborn, the sturdy little sophomore, will be the other Poly high hurdle climber. He will also be in the low sticks along with Mot-fat and Velarde.

One event in which Oliver hopes to pick up a point or two is the javelin in which he has Beatty who, when right, can hurl the spear better than 145 feet, a throw which would probably place him.

JULIA LATHROP WINS BASEBALL THRILLER, 7-5

The Spartans of Julia C. Lathrop junior high school added another baseball victory to their season's credit when they nosed out the Huntington Beach high school second team, 7 to 5, in a seven-inning game on Lathrop field yesterday.

Coach Ferris Scott's boys were trailing the Oilers by three runs at the beginning of the fourth but "Babe" Gordon drove out a homer with two on base to knot the score.

Huntington Beach scored again in the fifth, however, so that when Julia Lathrop came up for its last bats in the seventh they were still one down and needed two runs to win.

Gordon again started things by beating out a hunt and made the circuit on a passed ball and an error, tying the count. Pague drew a pass, Granvill singled and Reichstein tripled scoring both runners.

Both Pague, for Lathrop, and Loftus, for Huntington Beach, pitched good ball. The lineup:

EX-CONVICT ADMITS HALL-MILLS GUILT

ported confession were:

He killed the pastor and his paramour at the hiring of a Newark, N. J., dentist, whose name Allen did not reveal, but whom he alleged was a relative of Mrs. Mills.

He said this dentist asked him to kill the two "because they had disgraced the family" and offered him $5000 for the murder and $1000 additional to purchase a car with which to make his escape.

He said he had met the dentist while he was a trusty in the Connecticut reformatory, at Meriden, several years before. Allen said he had been sent to the reformatory on a mail robbery conviction.

He alleged the dentist met him again in Elizabeth, N. J., in the early fall of 1921 and made the murder offer. Later, Allen said, the dentist pointed out the Rev. Hall and Mrs. Mills on the streets of Newark.

Followed Automobile
Allen asserted several weeks later he discovered the two again in New York in an automobile. He said he followed them in another car on the highway toward Elizabeth and, as they neared that town, drove up in front of them and stopped their car.

He was armed, he said, with a .32-38 rifle and a .38 revolver. He forced them from their car, searched them and, when they asked him his purpose, replied:

"Never mind, you will find out." Then he said he got into the back seat of the couple's car, forced Mrs. Mills to drive them to a lane known as Plum lane and again forced them from the car.

Shot Hall Four Times
I told them they had disgraced two good families and that I was going to kill them," Allen related. He said then he shot Hall four times, killing him, while Mrs. Mills screamed. He said he then shot down Mrs. Mills with two bullets.

Then he placed the bodies in the car, drove back down the lane and left the bodies alongside the path.

Mrs. Steele Says of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound

Pratt, W. Va.—"I was so weak and nervous that I was in bed most all the time and couldn't sit up and I am only 30 years old. I saw your advertisement in a magazine and after I had taken three doses of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound I could feel that I was better. After taking two bottles I began doing my work and I feel like a new woman. I recommend the Vegetable Compound to my friends and say it will do all it claims to do and more. I will gladly answer all letters I receive."—Mrs. S. E. STEELE, Pratt, W. Va.

Asserted Woman Ponzi Believed To Be In Mexico

LOS ANGELES, April 18.—A 24-hour search had failed to find Miss Emily Peterson and today police expressed the belief that the woman, accused of the embezzlement of more than $100,000, had escaped across the Mexican border.

Miss Peterson was charged specifically with forgery when it was asserted she had used power of attorney to bilk her brokerage clients of their investments. She had fled from her home when police called to arrest her.

According to a letter written to a relative, Miss Peterson, herself, later was fleeced of the money by a "boy friend."

Water Rate Boost To Pay Dam Break Damages Held Up

LOS ANGELES, April 18.—Legal technicalities blocked the passage of a water rate increase for the purpose of paying damages resulting from the St. Francis dam break and the city council turned the matter to its water and power committee today.

At an open hearing Monday that committee is to rule on the most effective and speediest means of raising money through water rates to pay off damage claims.

City attorneys held the belief that the water and power bureau plan of increasing water rates from 13 to 18 cents per 100 cubic feet was the most logical.

ATTACK DENOUNCED

WASHINGTON, April 18.—A "poison pen" attack on Mrs. Henry B. Joy, of Detroit, in which her qualifications for vice president-general of the Daughters of the American Revolution was questioned, was denounced in the D. A. R. congress today by Mrs. Alfred J. Brouseau, president-general. D. A. R. officers privately informed the press after the denunciation that the anonymous "poison pen" attack had involved a statement of Mrs. Joy's husband, in which he allegedly favored repeal of the 18th amendment.

FLOOD CONTROL SURVEY READY SOON—BAILEY

ANAHEIM, April 18.—Declaring that preliminary surveys are nearly completed for Orange county's proposed flood control project and stating that a high dam in the Santa Ana canyon would be both feasible and safe, Paul Bailey, county flood control engineer, gave the principal address at the regular weekly meeting of the Anaheim Rotary club this week.

Engineer Bailey was introduced by William Schumacher, chairman of the board of supervisors and program chairman for the day.

Three possible sites for the Santa Ana canyon dam have been mapped out by the engineers, Bailey stated, though he did not describe in detail these various possible sites. Three dams are to be recommended to carry out the major flood control work in the county, he said, one in Santa Ana canyon, one in Brea canyon, and one in Carbon canyon.

Among those from Anaheim were Mr. and Mrs. Knight and Mr. and Mrs. Lambin.

The H. LaRue building is now being plastered and will be ready for tenants soon.

The Cypress-Richfield ball game Sunday, the third in the series and the first of the three that Richfield has won, was tied up to the ninth inning, when Richfield made a rally.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. McWilliams have visited their ranch in Temecula canyon twice during the past 10 days and report the sorghum cane being planted. Miss Gladys McWilliams accompanied them on one of the trips.

Mr. and Mrs. H. LaRue took the coast route trip to Sierra Sunday, returning via San Juan Capistrano, where they dined.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Fuquay and Mr. and Mrs. R. L. Walton formed a party visiting Long Beach Sunday.

R. L. Bisby Will Address Realty Group In Orange

ORANGE, April 18.—Tomorrow night the Orange real estate class will hear a talk on "Property Management," given by R. L. Bisby, manager of St. Ann's Inn, Santa Ana. The class is following a course of study under the supervision of the University of Southern California, meeting weekly at the Orange union high school.

Last week the speaker to address the class was Alfred Higgins, of the high school faculty. Higgins spoke on the topic of "Leases and Rentals."

ORANGE 'O' MADE BY CLASS IN 1917

ORANGE, April 18.—With the memories of the annual "O" day still fresh in the minds of students and teachers of the Orange union high school, a keen interest is being taken today in the whys and wherefores of this senior class privilege.

The first "O" day, it was revealed, was instituted April 26, 1917, under the direction of George Stoner, at that time senior class teacher. The seniors decided to make their "mark in the world" by clearing a gigantic "O" on the hill known as Leopard's head mountain, above Olive.

Each year the "O" is cleaned of any vegetation and it is outlined in adobe against the green of the hills.

Those who built the immortal "O" assisted by the girls of the class were, William Dyer, Hugo Lemke, Roscoe Shaffert, Willis Mitchell, Roch Bradshaw, Don Meadows, Floyd Carriker, George McCoy, Barcus Patton, Leon Blank, Alvin Dierker, Erwin Ruehle, Raymond Gilton, William Eckles, Laurence Smith, Leo Allison, Kenneth Claypool, Fred Hinrichs and Dan Gelderman.

GIRLS' AUXILIARY PLANS BREAKFAST

COSTA MESA, April 18.—The Girls' Junior auxiliary met at the home of Mrs. R. G. Roberts last evening for a pot luck dinner and a social evening.

At the business meeting plans were made to hold the next meeting early in the morning at Dana Point, where breakfast will be served.

INSTITUTE NEW LODGE AT MESA FRIDAY NIGHT

COSTA MESA, April 18.—Gladys McDonald, state organizer for the Women's Relief corps, will institute a chapter in Costa Mesa Friday at 7:30 p. m. in the Modern Woodmen of America hall, it was announced today.

A staff of seventeen officers will be present to help put on the work. Visitors from various corps in the county will be present. Installation of officers will be public and anyone interested in the work is invited to be present.

OLD ORANGE ATOP BUILDING DOOMED

ORANGE, April 18.—A tentative plan for tearing down the building next to the fire hall on South Olive street, owned by John Law, of Banning, and occupied by Bruce Richardson as a storage room, it put into effect will bring about the destruction of one of the oldest exhibits in the city.

At the present time the huge orange atop the ridge pole of the building might well represent anything from a globe to a mammoth pumpkin. Only shredded bits of wood underneath show that it was originally an orange used in one of the first street fairs held in this city.

Under the direction of the late Adolph Dittmer, the orange was built with a strong framework of curved wood. After the street fair held in the plaza in 1910, when the orange was used to center four horns of plenty on a float, it was purchased by John Law and used on top of his livery stable.

Twice it is said the building has been on fire and the orange threatened with destruction.

LIONS ENJOY SONGS

COSTA MESA, April 18.—The Costa Mesa Lions met yesterday in the Woman's club house with Dr. C. G. Huston presiding. Mrs. V. V. Goodfellow, of the Pallades, led in singing Lions' songs. $95,000 BOND ISSUE TO PROVIDE FUNDS FOR NEW ORANGE SCHOOL IS CALLED

ORANGE, April 18.—A $95,000 school bond election has been called for May 15 to provide funds to replace the old Lemon street school with a new modern structure. The project has been under consideration for the past year.

The site chosen for the new building is a five acre tract on Rose avenue between Olive and Lemon streets. The bond issue will provide for the purchase of the property owned by C. S. Talmadge and for the erection of a one story school that will conform in architectural style to the other schools of the city. The proposed school will have 14 class rooms. The five-acre tract is now planted to Valencia oranges and is valued at $23,000 or about $4600 an acre. Present plans provide for the retention of two acres of oranges as a source of income for the school. The new school will face on Rose avenue and occupy a full city block.

The Lemon street school is the oldest in the city. It is a wooden structure and has long been considered a fire hazard, although protective means have been employed to make it safe for children attending.

ANAHEIM BUILDING BODY REORGANIZED

ANAHEIM, April 18.—Details of a reorganization program just completed by the stockholders of the Anaheim Building and Loan association were revealed this morning by O. A. Ingram, who succeeds S. P. Seiders as manager of the association.

Forrest Fowler, Anaheim insurance agent, has been named to assume the duties of secretary and with Mr. Ingram will henceforth direct the activities of the association.

O. A. Ingram, the new manager, has been interested in the association and a member of its board of directors since its organization though for the past 21 years he has been engaged in the men's real estate business in Globe and Miami, Arizona. He was a pioneer in the business and has been connected with the old Stern brothers department store here, previous to his removal to Arizona. He is now making his home in Los Angeles but expects to locate in Anaheim in the near future.

William Schumacher, chairman of the Orange county board of supervisors, and Stone Todd, of the Industrial Fuel Supply company were added to the board in the reorganization project. Other officers and directors are William Stark, president; William Falkenstein, first vice-president; Fritz Yungbluth, second vice president; Fred Koessel and Dr. A. H. Domann, of Orange, directors.

LAGUNA REALTORS ENTERTAIN IN JUNE

LAGUNA BEACH, April 18.—Officials of Orange county and other realty boards will meet in Laguna Beach in June, the date to be determined, with a discussion of a coast park on the list of topics, according to A. B. Marshall, president of the local realty board.

With P. C. Pemberton, secretary of the board and George Smith, vice president, Mr. Marshall attended the meeting of realty boards in Montebello last week and as a result of a talk by the local man, the decision was made to hold the next meeting of the twelfth district realty boards in this city.

The entertaining board will be permitted to invite its own members and guests, a departure from the regular routine which has prevailed and which did not have members generally present at the meetings. Glenn D. Willaman, resident of Anaheim, however, secretary of the California Real Estate association will be present at the meeting.

BUENA PARK

BUENA PARK, April 18.—Mrs. Lena Myers, of Los Angeles, visited Mr. and Mrs. I. D. Jaynes Sunday.

In the Homewood tract, Contractor G. F. Battell has his $3600 seven room bungalow half completed. After finishing his home he will build two more houses.

Monday at noon Buena Park put on the program for the Fullerton Kiwanis club. Judge Drumm, of Santa Ana, was the speaker, his address being on "Formation Better Than Reformation." About 25 members of the Buena Park club enjoyed the luncheon and social hour with the Fullerton members.

Caesar Faires visited Santa Ana Sunday.

Sunday evening, when the car of Mrs. D. A. Davis backed out of a driveway on Walker street, the auto driven by Mr. Marisal collided with it.

MAYOR DOLLEY GIVEN SILVER CUP BY FRIENDS

SEAL BEACH, April 18.—The 70th birthday of Mayor R. E. Dolley was not allowed to pass unnoticed for two groups of relatives and friends came in to offer congratulations and best wishes.

The dinner guests were Mr. and Mrs. Leland Dolley, of Long Beach; Mr. and Mrs. William Dolley and Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dolley, of Torrance; Mrs. Harold Dolley, Mrs. Nettie Boothby, of Pasadena; Wilmer Dolley, of Compton; Mrs. R. E. Parmley, of Los Angeles, and Mrs. Dolley, of Portland, Penn.

In the evening a number of cars stopped at the Dolley home and it dawned on the host that his friends might be coming in for a second party. This proved to be the case and 46 Seal Beach residents filled the big living room.

ORANGE, April 18.—The city hall of Orange is undergoing its semi-annual hair cut. The vine which covers the building is a rapid grower and requires regular trims.

According to G. C. Mondell, gardener, about five loads of vine have been cut with as many more to be shorn from the grey walls of the city administration building.

$25 BAIL FORFEITED

NEWPORT BEACH, April 18.—Paul Higman, 19, of Redlands, forfeited $25 bail money here yesterday when he failed to appear in court to answer a charge of being intoxicated. Judge W. A. Leonard, city police judge, declared the bail money forfeited.

FULLERTON IN STEPS TO CUT CITY EXPENSES

FULLERTON, April 18.—A definite program toward economy was begun last night by the new city council at its first regular meeting, when steps were taken to cut expenditures in the city departments.

The council committees were authorized to meet with the heads of the various departments in order to discuss expenditures and means of reaching a more economical method of conducting the city's affairs. An audit of the finances was authorized and a review of the salaries of various appointive offices is to be made by the council within a short time.

All appointive officers and heads of departments were reinstated by the new council until further notice.

Several applications for positions to city departments were read and held over for action until the next meeting.

Dr. K. H. Sutherland, county health officer, addressed the board on the activities of the health department. He introduced other members of the department including Miss Mary Simpson, newly appointed officer, with headquarters at Fullerton.

A report was made by City Engineer Thorpe relative to a proposed bridge across the baranca leading to the city auto park on North Spadra road. He estimated the cost of a bridge to be about $2000. No action was taken on the matter by the council.

The city clerk was authorized to advertise for bids for the lowering of the water main on South Spadra road for a distance of 1800 feet as requested by the state highway commission. The estimated cost is said to be about $2000.

The city council gave a vote of thanks to the retired council for the banquet which was given the new council and also for a large bouquet of flowers.

Council committees were appointed by Mayor Bert Annin. They are as follows: Street committee, Kreighbaum and Elder; finance, Hale and Potter; fire and water, Elder and Kreighbaum; sewer, Kreighbaum and Potter; police, Hale and Elder; town, Hale and Kreighbaum; relief, Potter and Hale; park, Kreighbaum and Hale; street lighting, Potter and Elder; building, Potter and Kreighbaum.

An adjourned meeting of the council will be held next Tuesday night at 7:30 p. m.

Who Will Be Bride in "Womanless Wedding" Presentation?

Can you imagine a wedding ceremony without a woman in the entire party?

That is the diverting situation that will greet those who attend the Ebell Spring Market and Flower show in the clubhouse, on Thursday or Friday night, April 26 and 27. For the clubwomen have promised to present "The Womanless Wedding" as a special feature on those two nights, and their husbands and friends are offering splendid co-operation.

Miss Dorothea Jacobs, representing the Symphon-Levis company of Bardonia, Ky., has arrived in Santa Ana, to direct the play, and is working with the Ebells women in making it a success. Mrs. F. E. Coulter, the president, has selected her committees for the feature, and all the children met Monday night in her home at 828 South Ross street, to complete their plans.

One of the most important committees, is that of casting, with Mrs. John E. Gowen as chairman, and Mesdames W. H. Haddon, F. W. Slabaugh, Holmes Bishop, Susan Rutherford, Terry E. Stephenson among the members. They have been enlisting the aid of the men, with very satisfactory results. In fact already half the required 80 characters, are promised.

The men who will take part, are asked to meet at the clubhouse Thursday evening at 7:30 o'clock, for the assigning of roles. Since there are no lines to learn, two rehearsals will be all that will be required, and no matter how busy the husbands and friends of Ebells may be, all feel that they can spare the time.

Among those who have promised their aid are Messrs. Lloyd Babbitt, Lloyd Roach, Herschel Clayton, Fred Rowland, Robert Bradford, Elmer Heidt and Holmes Bishop, of the city's vocalists; Jack Bascom, Charles Cotant, Alex Brownridge, Arnold Peek, Bruce Switzer, Harry Baade, J. H. Metzger, Fred Parsons, Robert L. Blisby, James Willis Rice, D. Eymann Huff, O. A. Haley, Charles Kendall Jr., A. L. Fahlestedt, Roch Bradshaw, Alvin B. Berry, C. H. Chapman, Jess Goodman, Dr. H. MacVicker Smith, Charles Mitchell, Dr. L. L. Whitson, J. A. Tarpley, John Knox, Hugh Plumb, T. D. Knights, J. G. Mitchell, Archie V. Herr, R. A. Bradford, M. L. Norton, R. Elliott, Rowland, E. D. Holmes, John Sylvester, George Ross, Floyd Berkland, and many others.

While the casting committee is arranging for the aid of the men, the costume committee, under the leadership of Mrs. A. G. Flagg is working busily to plan the costumes of the play, Miss Martha Ritchey and her committee members are arranging for the properties and Mrs. Perry E. Lewis is directing the publicity.

Thursday night's organization meeting of the men, promises to be an exceedingly interesting occasion, and everyone is anxious to know just who will be selected to take the role of "Burning bridge" and her attendants, to say nothing of the bridegroom and his ushers.

Trousers, Aprons and Shoes Are Needed by Nursery Children

It is amazing how rapidly the little children of Ebells Day Nursery can wear out their shoes and aprons and little trousers, according to Mrs. Clyde Bach, chairman of the Ebell committee which has charge of Day Nursery affairs. So Mrs. Bach and her sister clubwomen have sent out a call for donations of garments of all kinds, but especially for those suitable for small people—or that can be made over for them.

And shoes! Lots of shoes are needed at the cozy little home at 610 Garfield street, where daily a group of two-score or more children are out earning a living. The nursery is one of the greatest of all Ebells manifold activities, and its record has been a splendid one since its founding a number of years ago. Everyone in the city feels a warm and friendly interest in it, and the committee is well aware that no call will go unheeded.

If it is not convenient for kindly friends to leave their gifts of clothing at the nursery, members of the committee will gladly call for them in response to a 'phone call to Mrs. Bach at 2815-W.

Essay Contest Results Are Announced by W. C. T. U.

The most outstanding work of the Woman's Christian Temperance Union this year is the scientific temperance instruction in the public schools. The present Eighteenth amendment is the culmination of this work started years ago by Frances Willard.

The plan of the work has been to instruct the young people in the schools of the harmful effect of alcohol on the human system by having them write essays or compile illustrated work books along Temperance lines. This year the county organization has sustained the work in the rural schools under the able direction of Mrs. Pearl Kendall Hess of Orange. Almost every school in the county has taken up the work.

The literature, consisting of helps and references, is sent out from the National W. C. T. U. publishing house. Many of the best writers of the times have contributed to this cause. Mrs. Effie Nicholson has charge of the work in the Santa Ana schools. Twelve grade and two junior high schools have taken part and written 2561 essays.

This year a prize was offered in each of the three higher grades in each grade school in the city, a grand prize for the best in the whole contest of the 4th, 5th and 6th grades, while two junior high schools competed against each other.

The first prize essays are entered in a county contest and then on to the state and national. The names of the prize winners follow: Junior high school, ninth grade, First, Gene Hall, Frances Willard; second, Elmer Fox, Frances Willard; second, Hazel Spencer, Julia Lathrop; third, Minor Warner, Julia Lathrop.

Eighth grade; first, Ruth Jenkins, Frances Willard; second, Hazel Berger, Julia Lathrop; third, Ella Pleiss, Frances Willard.

Seventh grade; First, Helen Logue, Julia Lathrop; second, Billie Estes, Frances Willard; third, Jack Pegues, Julia Lathrop.
Grand prizes for grade schools; sixth, Frank Martinez, Grand avenue school; fifth, Jean Mulbar, Edison; fourth, Ingeborg Immeler, John Muir.

Best in each school: Artesia, incomplete; Delhi, Julian Farfan, Guadalupe Lopez, Bernaye Martinez; Edison, Kenneth Nelson, Jean Mulbar, Raymond Nordstrom.

Franklin, Audrey Benaglia, Herman Saffler, Mary Jane Vardy; Grand avenue, Frank Martinez, Narsaria Bazzara, Ben Cruz, Louise Moreno; Jefferson, Irene Paine, Philip Smith, Hazel Schwarm; Lincoln, Mary Wallace, Margaret Munro, Agnes McDougall; Lowell, Jean Siddoway, Alice Butka, Mar-

Entertaining Sketches Presented at Meeting Of Quill Pen Club

Members of the Quill Pen club were entertained at the home of Mrs. E. E. Boething, 326 East Camille street, last night. Roll call was answered by a description of a walk home where the odors of cooking dinners were wafted to the traveler. Some particularly clever sketches were presented that illustrated the power of smell in stimulating the imagination.

Stories were presented by three members, Mrs. Blanche Brown, Mrs. Fred Conover and Miss Lucy Agar. Miss Agar read a tale written for a child of seven. Involved in it were the mustard pot, the salt and pepper shaker, two lovable little lads and their more or less practical parents. Miss Agar was criticised in papers, which were read and which will be used as the basis of a complete criticism to be given at the next meeting by Mrs. G. W. Stacken, who will act in the capacity of critic of all of the stories presented at last night's meeting.

Mrs. Conover's story, "Searching," had as its theme a young woman who longed for a home but who was forced by circumstances to move from place to place. The bits of child life and child longing introduced by the two children in the tale, were well done, it was agreed by the critics as offered.

Mrs. Brown deviated from her usual style and wrote of a girl who lived in a future age but who was confronted by the same problems presented by Mother Nature that the girl of today has for her solving. Mrs. Brown brought out the idea, that while conditions in the world may change, nature remains the same. A spirited discussion followed the reading, members expressing their ideas as agreeing or disagreeing with Mrs. Brown's unusual theme.

Mrs. Boething was assisted in serving by Mrs. Frank Was and Mrs. Alexis Parlova.

Members present were, the club president, Mrs. Harry M. Smith; Mrs. E. E. Boething, Mrs. Blanche Brown, Mrs. Marshall Harnois, Mrs. Frank Was, Mrs. Fred Conover, Mrs. Herman Reuter, Mrs. G. W. Stracken, Mrs. J. F. Adams, Mrs. N. E. Wells, Miss Lucy Agar, Miss Pearl Camblin and two guests, Mrs. J. D. Campbell and Mrs. Alexis Parlova.

celle Rossier; McKinley, Edna Wilson, Bonnie Vaup, Patty Clark; John Muir, Birtie Iley, Charles Kaufman, Ingeborg Immeler; Roosevelt, Dorothy Proctor, Lenore McFarren, Winifred Gallienne; Spurgeon, Bernice Miles, Gloria Best, Clyde Files. Some of this work is on exhibit at the children's library.

Golden Wedding Date Is Celebrated at County Park

Congratulations and good wishes continue to pour in on Mr. and Mrs. Allen Humphreys of 615 Cypress street, who on Sunday celebrated their golden wedding at a delightful park party attended by children, grandchildren and close friends and relatives to the number of over half a hundred.

Orange county park was the scene of the celebration, and a happy day was spent in that shady spot. A delicious dinner was served at noon with the barbecued meat accompanied by salads, fruits, home-made pies, coffee and a variety of good things, followed by ice cream and wedding cake served as a surprise feature late in the afternoon.

Following the dinner, dainty little Miss Anna Mae Seelig of Long Beach, a granddaughter of the honored couple, appeared as a diminutive postman, and delivered a great sack of mail, consisting of congratulatory letters, cards and telegrams, many of the letters containing appropriate gifts of gold.

Mr. and Mrs. Humphreys resided in Johnson City, Texas, for many years, but came to California four years ago, to make their home. Of their eleven children, eight were present to join in the celebration. With their wives or husbands, they were Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Humphreys and Claud Humphreys, Alhambra; Mr. and Mrs. George Smith, San Bernardino; Mr. and Mrs. Claud Price and Mr. and Mrs. Del Morton, Santa Ana; Mr. and Mrs. Herman Seelig, Ventura; Mr. and Mrs. Bud Humphreys and Raymond Humphreys, Long Beach.

Children unable to be present were Mrs. W. S. Morgan, San Marcos, Tex.; Mrs. E. A. Oates, Floresville, Tex.; and Mrs. Ethel Smith, Palm Springs. Twelve grandchildren were present, Mrs. Lee Morton and Dorothy Lee Price, Santa Ana; Mrs. Russell Underwood, Indio; the Misses Marjorie and Cona Smith and Jack Smith, San Bernardino; La Verne Smith, Palm Springs; Margaret, Charles and Anna Mae Seelig, Ventura; Barbara June Humphreys sr., were Mr. and Mrs. Carl West, Los Angeles; Mr. and Mrs. Hamilton Shields, Fullerton; Mr. and Mrs. G. G. Love and family, Santa Barbara; Mr. and Mrs.

Homer Smith and family, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Puppet, San Bernardino; Mr. and Mrs. Felix Seelig and M. R. Broderwick, Long Beach.

Lovely Garden Wedding Of Miss Mary Lewis And Charles Hunt

An April garden and a lovely April bride combined to make a memorable picture, when Miss Mary Georgiana Lewis, only daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George William Lewis, of West Chapman avenue, late yesterday afternoon became the bride of Charles A. Hunt, only son of Mr. and Mrs. Edward Hunt of Anaheim.

Guests gathered beneath the great pine trees of the Lewis garden, to enjoy the charming picture when the bride and her attendants came from the house, and moved across the grass to the white arbor banked with palms and greenery. There the bridegroom, and his best man, awaited them, with the two ministers, the Rev. Thomas H. Walker, pastor of Anaheim Presbyterian church, and the Rev. Frederick P. Rosset, pastor of Garden Grove Congregational church.

Miss Lewis was on the arm of her father, and was lovely indeed, in the heavy satin gown, worn by her mother when she was a bride, 22 years ago. The years had given it an exquisite ivory sheen, and its quaint style was beautifully adapted to present day modes. The veil of silk net and Duchesse lace worn in close-fitting cap effect, and sweeping on the grass had also been worn by her mother, and completed the picture of girlish charm. Her flowers were white roses showered with sweet peas.

The Misses Myrtle Broadbrooks of Los Angeles, and Mary Elizabeth Rutledge of Santa Ana, were her bridesmaids, and were gowned in bouffant tulle frocks in deep rose-pink. They carried pink sweet peas and rosebuds. Mrs. De Witt Bertram, formerly Miss Dorothy Hunt, of Aberdeen, Wash., a sister of the bridegroom, was honor matron, and wore a ruffled gown of rose-lavender Chinese silk, and carried yellow rosebuds and sweet peas. Miss Helen Hunt as maid of honor, wore a period gown in corn-color tulle, and carried orchid sweet peas and pink rosebuds.

Just preceding the bride, was cuning little Marjorie Fullenwid-er, in a ruffled frock of pale green chiffon, carrying a white enameled basket of snowy rose petals and sweet peas, to scatter in the pathway of the bride.

Mr. Hunt was assisted by his brother-in-law-to-be, Jack Lewis, as best man. The ceremony was read very impressively by Dr. Walker, with Dr. Rosset offering the invocation.

Mrs. Lewis, mother of the bride, wore bisque georgette and Italian lace, very becoming to her crown of silver hair, while Mrs. Hunt, mother of the groom, was in ashes of roses Canton crepe. Among the guests were Mr. Lewis' sister, Mrs. Frank D. Miller, and her daughter, Mrs. Vera Bigelow, of Oneonta, New York.

During the reception which followed the ceremony, a bevy of close friends of the new Mrs. Hunt aided in serving the dainty supper of chicken salad with hot biscuits, thin sandwiches, coffee, olives, heart-centered ice cream and wedding cake. In the group were Mrs. Robert Luberby (Charlotte Fine) of Huntington Beach, and the Misses Charlotte Harnois, Geneva Moore, Ruth Stevenson, Marjorie Calles and Grace Reeves. All wore smart little afternoon frocks in soft pastel colors.

Before leaving for a northern automobile trip, Mrs. Hunt tossed her bouquet into the expectant crowd, where it was caught by Miss Mary Elizabeth Rutledge.

For traveling, the bride wore a smart outfit in tan, with tailored costume of kasha, harmonizing with hat, gloves and foot-wear. Upon returning southward, the young people will make their home on the groom's orange grove on Rio Vista avenue, Anaheim, where a wealth of beautiful shower and bridal gifts will find place.

THE TINYMITES

STORY BY MAL COCHRAN—PICTURES BY KNICK
REG. U. S. PAT. OFF.

(Read The Story, Then Color The Picture)

The flying man and big black bird fought hard, and shrieks were plainly heard. The bird made such an awful sound, it scared the Tinymites. "I wish that we could help the man, but there is no way that we can," said Scouty. "Mercy me, just look how wonderful he fights."

And, sure enough, the man was game. As up to him the big bird came, he struck out with his fists and hit the bird upon the beak. "Oh, look!" cried Copy, "there he goes. The bird is leaving. See, he knows he's licked." The Tinies were so thrilled they simply could not speak.

And then the man dropped to their side. "I won the fight," he loudly cried. "I feared that bird would peck me, but he didn't get a chance. I guess this is my lucky day. My blow just took his breath away, and now we're safe. I am so glad that I could almost dance."

And then he said, "Come on, let's go. We must find Clowny now, you know. I'm sure that he is right close by, upon the mountain side. 'So,' on his back they hopped again. One Tiny cried, 'All set!' And then the flying man rose in the air upon another ride.

They circles round the mountain top and then the man began to drop. "Look just below," he shouted. "I can see a nest real plain. And someone's in it. Yes, I'm right! I'll bet it's Clowny Tinymite." "That's who it is," yelled Copy. "Our long search is not in vain."

The flying man then quickly dropped, and right beside the nest he stopped. "Well, look who's here," yelled Clowny. "I am glad to see you all. Just gather close. Look out, don't slip. I'll tell you all about my trip. The black bird gave me quite a ride. I wasn't scared at all."

(The flying man leaves the Tinymites in the next story.)

BREAKFAST — Orange juice, cereal, cream, eggs in nests, graham muffins, marmalade, milk, coffee.

LUNCHEON — Peppers stuffed with fish, cabbage and orange salad, ginger cookies, milk, tea.

DINNER — Baked ham, scalloped sweet potatoes and pineapple, asparagus salad, fruit puff pudding, milk, coffee.

The luncheon main dish is planned to use up any fish left from the fish stew in the preceding dinner. However, a small can of fish is excellent used in this way if there are no left-overs.

Peppers Stuffed with Fish
Four medium sized sweet green peppers, 1 cup hulled rice, 2-3 cup flaked fish, 1 thin slice bacon, 4 tablespoons coarse bread crumbs, 1 tablespoon butter, 1 tablespoon minced onion, salt and pepper, tomato juice, 1 teaspoon sugar.

Cut a slice from stem end of peppers and remove seeds and white pith. Drop into rapidly boiling water, simmer ten minutes and drain. Plunge into cold water and turn upside down until ready to stuff. Cut bacon into tiny pieces and fry until fat. Add rice and stir with fork until each kernel is coated with fat. Add onion, fish, salt and pepper and tomato juice to make moist. Fill peppers with mixture. Melt butter and stir in crumbs. Put a tablespoonful of crumbs on top of each pepper and bake in a moderate oven until crumbs are brown and peppers are tender. It will take about half an hour.

Observations of an old Codger

167! That's what he said. Seven men in four hours. Caught 'em at 2100 feet. None weighed less than ten pounds. They were cod. Off of Balboa about twelve miles. "Caught 167 cod!" That's what he said.

My informant is a friend. He hasn't a great deal of imagination. I can believe him. What's more I want to believe him. Such demonstrations prove that old Malthus was all "wet." The human race need not starve for several days yet.

And better still! When people begin to think of Excelsior milk as a food which it is rather than a drink which it also is, then Malthus gets even "wetter." A quart of Excelsior milk every day puts pep in your vitals and power in your mental and muscular sinews. Try it and then let's go fishing, for we will be ahead with our work.

AT THE THEATERS

WEST COAST-WALKER

Harold Lloyd came to the West Coast-Walker theater yesterday, in his latest release "Speedy," and it may be well recorded that the bespectacled comedian has succeeded again in surpassing his previous successes, with his latest offering. As typical of all Harold Lloyd productions, entirely new and highly humorous situations and "gags" have been injected, which serve to stamp the comedian as the greatest in motion pictures today, and for some time to come for that matter.

"Speedy" is everything the name implies. It is a fast moving story, which keeps the patron sitting on edge every minute. To the dyed-in-the-wool movie fan, he may assume there is nothing new left in movie craft that would serve to smack of the novelty, but in "Speedy" that fan is due for a most welcome surprise. Harold has fairly outdone himself along these lines.

WEST END THEATER

"The Girl from Gay Paree" was shown here for the first time yesterday at the West End theater. It is one of those peppy, jazzy pictures that keeps an audience in laughter throughout its showing and at times there creeps in a bit of pathos that make the lighter moments all the merrier.

A cast of splendid players including Lowell Sherman, Barbara Bedford, Malcolm McGregor, Margaret Livingston, Betty Blythe, Walter Hiers, Templar Saxe and Leo White all portray their various roles in a finished and artistic manner.

YOST BROADWAY THEATER
Scintillating with action and brimming with romance, "Stand and Deliver," Rod La Rocque's latest star picture will have its premiere at the Yost Broadway tonight.

While La Rocque captures the stellar honors, Lupe Velez, his leading lady, who achieved a triumph in "The Gaucho," also gives a noteworthy performance. Miss Velez, a comparative newcomer to the screen, has become one of Filmworld's most talked of personalities.

Warner Oland, as Ghika, the bandit chief, gives a fine performance, as do Louis Natheaux and Clarence Burton in lesser roles.

EVENING SALUTATION

Work thou for pleasure; paint or sing or carve
The thing thou lovest, though the body starve.
Who works for glory misses oft the goal;
Who works for money coins his very soul.
Work for work's sake then, and it will may be
That these things shall be added unto thee.

LESS STANDARDIZATION, NOT MORE

There is some agitation for a thirteen month year, with twenty-eight days to the month and one day left over for a holiday. There are many advantages which are pointed out which would accrue to such a project. A date of each month would be the same day of the week for every month of the year. For example, the first would always be Sunday, the second Monday and so on through the calendar. More than this, of course, the day of the month and the day of the week one year would be identical to the days of the month and week of the previous year.

This has been pointed out for business reasons as a very happy condition. In all lines of business, comparisons are made with the corresponding month, often of the week, and even of the day, of the previous year. Comparisons are not of the highest value sometimes because there may be a five Saturday month this year and a four Saturday month last year and Saturday may be an exceptionally poor or good day for business. And in certain lines where business is better or worse on particular days the number of these days in the month makes a difference in the comparison and does not determine with accuracy just exactly the business developed or lost, though with the calendar before one he can easily discern these facts and make allowances. With a thirteen month year, each one of them having just four weeks, there would be no requirement to make allowances for differences of this character. Some months have five Sundays and one less work day than the corresponding month of the year before.

Under the thirteen month plan, the number of Sundays, as of other days, would be identical with every other month, namely four. Decoration Day, Fourth of July, Christmas, New Years, Thanksgiving Day and every other holiday would come on a day fixed and certain. New Years would always come on Sunday and so would Christmas.

But we are not entirely sold on it even at that. We like things pretty well as they are. We hate to see everything standardized. There is a certain fascination in these changes and comparisons and in having things different one year than the year before. If a man believes he can run his business more efficiently by having a four week month and thirteen months in the year, he can do it. Some businesses are now run this way, as far as their books are concerned, but let us have a little variety somewhere. We recall some time ago that brick manufacturers met and agreed to cut out a large number of varieties of bricks and the business world applauded because, as the variety decreased, the unit cost decreased, production increased and business developed. But opportunities for individual taste, variety, and beauty, and charm were just in that measure destroyed. With a sameness in things being superimposed upon us, through standardization, judgment and discrimination will not be needed very greatly. This world needs more variety, more individuality, not less.

FOR WHOM THE COLLEGES?

The new president of a State University in the Middle West made a statement in his inaugural that greater interest should be taken in the vast majority of college students who are not scholars, but for whom the college may nevertheless render a high service. The states are spending an enormous amount of money for their State educational institutions, and the feeling is growing that more should be done for the great mass of students who are not and never can be great scholars.

The ultimate question settles down to this, do our colleges exist for the few scholars they turn out, or for the great average mass of young men and women who cannot rise to the heights of scholarship, but who may be developed into efficient and cultured men of affairs in the ordinary walks of life which most of them naturally enter? If our colleges exist only for the former, why the great plants, the costly equipment, and the expensive teaching staff? Surely it would be much less expensive if the few great scholars could be singled out and gathered together in a small group, and under expert supervision be permitted to work out their high aims. In that case the great average mass could be gathered together in schools in which high critical scholarship would not be the sole desideratum.

There was a time when our high schools existed only for the purpose of fitting boys and girls for college. The curriculum provided especially for them. The time and the energy of the teachers were concentrated upon them. It ultimately came about that not more than 5 per cent of all the high school scholars intended to go to college, and the people began to recognize that the 95 per cent who did not go to college should have more consideration than they were getting. Towns and cities in providing for their high schools have now come to the conclusion that these high schools exist for the many for whom they are the final factor in education. May not the time be at hand when our great State Universities need reconstruction along the same line?

The University of Wisconsin is beginning an experiment under Dr. Micklejohn, formerly president of Amherst College, along that line. A college within the University is being developed for the special student of scholarly ability. That college of necessity will be quite select, but it will accomplish the purpose for which the whole university is striving, but which in the very nature of things it can never attain.

This is not intended as a criticism of our universities and colleges. Progress and experience call for constant change and readjustment. The fact that the suggestion here referred to has come from the head of a State University indicates the trend in sentiment among some of our educators toward colleges and universities which will serve more effectively the great majority of the students who now study in them.

LIQUIDATING WAR HATES

Noting in another editorial the reduction of the war debts, we are reminded of the equally rapidly passing and liquidation of war hates. Sir Harry Lauder was recently addressing an American Legion Post, and took occasion to say that while the war was on he hated as fiercely as any man did, but the moment it was over he ceased to hate. Others were not so quick in liquidating their hates, but all have been gradually coming to it. It has come to be rather unpopular to refer to our former war enemies in terms of reproach or slander. It sounded very natural during the progress of the war, but now it sounds very unnatural. The selfish politician who would rise to power on war hates would soon find himself relegated to what Grover Cleveland called innocuous desuetude.

Pictures presenting the German side of the war are being shown all over the country at the present time. Undoubtedly those which were made for hatred and war propaganda have been eliminated, but those which are being shown present the better attitude of our former enemies. There was a certain amount of idealism among them, just as there was among us, and the time has come when we frankly recognize it. The great Civil War memorial being carved on Stone Mountain to the heroes of the Confederacy shows equally well the artificial character of war hates, and the general bigness of humanity in putting such hates behind them. If this attitude only persisted, war would soon become an impossibility.

"WHAT DO YOU THINK OF PROHIBITION?"

The Outlook has been taking a poll of its readers on the question. The result is not at all discouraging for those who believe in the Eighteenth Amendment and the Volstead law.

From this poll we learn that 76 per cent of those who voted were in favor of the Amendment, 72 per cent are still in favor of it. 72 per cent believe it has made for improved conditions in their neighborhood. 82 per cent believe it has bettered economic conditions. 83 per cent are opposed to buying from bootleggers, and about 85 per cent are either indifferent (31 per cent) or actually opposed (55 per cent) to bootlegging. 71 per cent would vote for the amendment again if it came up; 65 per cent would retain the Volstead act as it stands. 94 per cent are opposed to the return of the licensed saloon. 68 per cent are opposed to the manufacture of light wines and beer.

This, to be sure, represents a specialized constituency. But if every constituency holds to this same proportion now that it did when the amendment came into force, there is very little prospect that the country would do other now than it did when the amendment was passed. If everybody is of the same opinion as at the time of the adoption of the amendment, as these percentages seem to indicate, there is little prospect that the "wets" can change the law.

However, we cannot sit supinely down and think that the experiment of national prohibition, as it is so often called, has yet proven a complete success. It is on the way to being a complete success, but our officials still need to be watched and goaded on to do their full duty, and the people at large need to educate their children as to what the whole experiment means to the moral, social, and economic life of the nation.

OUR CHILDREN

SHORT MEMORY

"Henry, where is your book bag?"
"O gee. I forgot and left it in the street car."
"Now go back and get it."
Henry raced off to the office of the lost and found and came home with his book bag.
"I got it. The man was just turning it in when I got there."
"Good. Now try to remember. This habit of forgetting is bad. Did you go over there without a hat?"
"O gee. I must have left it in the office. I took it off when I went in and I must have forgotten it."
"Go and get it. You'd forget your head if it wasn't fastened. Something has to be done with you if you keep on forgetting like this."

Something ought to be done. The first thing to do is to take him to a doctor and have him examined. He is very likely to be an under-nourished child.
"He may eat more than all the other children in the family together and still be an under-nourished child. He may be overweight and still be an under-nourished child. Take nobody's word for this, not even your own, but take the word of the doctor and make sure and plentiful enough to keep his brain work up to standard. A child who keeps forgetting ordinary things like bookbags and hats, grocery lists, letters, that ought to have been mailed—keeps habitually forgetting, needs diet and careful supervision of health habits."

There is, too, another kind of forgetting. We forget what we want to forget. If the errand the child is asked to do is unpleasant to him, he is very likely to forget it, and honestly forget it. His mind attends to that without his willing it to do so. Investigate what a child forgets and when he forgets. You will find there the clue to the cure.

If he is not paying attention to you when you tell him something he is likely to forget it. Make sure when giving a child directions that he is giving you his whole attention. See that he stops what he is doing, looks right at you, and understands what you are saying.

The funny sheet is more interesting than any errand, so if the child is engaged in discovering what happened to Jimmie Duggin wait until he has satisfied his mind upon the point, and then tell him what it is you want him to remember.

A healthy body usually carries a healthy memory within it. An interesting matter will be remembered. Whatever is given to an attentive healthy mind will be retained. Fear will cause a child to forget. Boredom will make him forget. Inattention makes him deaf and he cannot remember what he never heard.

Repetition of a message, a fact, an action will fix it in memory. Pleasure attending an action will cause it to be remembered. There are many things that may be involved in a child's forgetting. Think about them before punishing him. Punishing him is a very fine way to have him forget.

Sunny Side Up

More Truth Than Poetry

By James J. Montague

THE GAMBLER

I bought a block of motor stock
Which then was eighty three
And every day, at work or play,
A nightmare was to me.
It rose a spell; I dared not sell
But viewed with greedy eyes
The market dove with eager hope
That it might further rise.

It sagged a bit, I had a fit
Of hideous despair
It sagged still more the while I tore
Great segments from my hair.
Down, down it went until I spent
A simply awful night
And only woke at time to creak
In accents of affright.

And then it rose, I saw my woes
By magic disappear
It rose again, a point, and then
Began a wild career.
I could not think, nor even drink,
I could not dine or sup
While day by day it soared away
Up, up, and up and up.

My soul is calm, no single quail
Of worry beads my brow
I'm gaining weight, I'm glad to state,
And sleeping soundly now.
I do not fear some profiteer
May have my soul in hook
I'm gay and free; for eighty-three
I sold my share of stock.

Dr. Crane's Friendly Talk

By Dr. Frank Crane

RICH MEN'S SONS

McClure's magazine recently carried an interesting article about the activities of rich men's sons.
As far as we can see they are much like anybody else's sons. We commonly think of the sons of rich men as sitting around on the hotel porch at Palm Beach in white flannels, or yachting on the South Seas or some sort of thing like that. But probably there are as many idle sons of poor men.
Of course poor men's sons have to work sometimes in order to eat, but necessity is not the only thing that makes men work.
There is boredom. Ennui has considerable punch in making men get up and hustle.

The article in question says that two dozen young men, all sons of wealthy men, are building air routes, manufacturing and piloting planes, backing inventors and subsidizing aerial schools, and all without the hope of financial return for years to come.
Earl Reeves, the author of the article in question, mentions Sherman Fairchild, who inherited forty millions. In his early twenties he invented a camera now in universal use. He is now manufacturing planes and projecting aerial communication lines from New York to open in the spring.

Harold F. Pitcairn, heir to some $20,000,000 plate glass fortune, backs the New York-Atlanta air mail route and is a pilot himself, as well as operating two flying fields and an aerial school at Philadelphia.

Edsel Ford, the son of a man considered by some to be the richest man in the world, might loaf and puff cigarettes for a million years or so if he lived that long. He is not going to live that long and gets his fun out of building air planes and transporting mail and express between Detroit and Chicago, Cleveland and Buffalo.

Charles L. Lawrence, who designed the "Whirlwind" engine which took Lindbergh, Byrd and Chamberlain across the Atlantic, is an engineering executive of the Wright Company, although his family fortune would have served him for life.

J. R. Cunningham is the son of a Portland millionaire, but he works as a mail pilot on the coast for a living, and is flying around in order to learn about commercial aviation.

Harry F. Guggenheim, son of the copper magnate, who was a war pilot, now is head of the $2,500,000 fund for the promotion of aeronautics, sponsor of Lindbergh's All-American tour.

Aviation seems to offer just about enough adventure and novelty to interest rich young men.

Thoughts On Modern Life

By Glenn Frank

IT DOES NOT PAY TO WIN

This is a generation keyed to combat. Life is conceived and carried on in terms of conflict.

And yet the great paradox of history is that it has never paid an individual or an institution, a man or a nation, to win a war either of argument or of assault.

Since time began no victor has ever been victorious.

In every genuine combat, both sides lose.

Victory and defeat are but figures of speech.

For this is the immutable law of conflict—when conflict is inspired by hatred or disrespect of the opponent—that in the end the enemies trade souls.

We become like the thing we fight.

And whether we win or lose—in the common sense of these words—does not alter this fact.

Let me list a few illustrations of the way in which the loser becomes the winner, and the winner like the loser.

For a long stretch of years there has been accumulating a tension between the Orient and the Occident, between Eastern civilization and Western civilization.

Western civilization has symbolized and preached democracy and equality and science.

Eastern civilization has symbolized and preached aristocracy and the inequality of caste and the mystic's concern with the inner meaning of objective facts.

But today as this conflict between East and West bids fair to come to a head, East and West are beginning to trade souls. The East is beginning to take the propaganda of equality and democracy seriously at the very time when the West is beginning to drop them or at least to subject them to a ruthless re-examination. And here, there and yonder throughout the West men like Romain Rolland, Count Keyserling and others are exhorting the West to seek the inner meaning of its outer life. The voice of the mystic begins to be heard above the roar of our machines.

Or, again, in the World War, Allied democracies fought a German autocracy. The Allied democracies seemed to win the war against the German autocracy, and yet today the erstwhile German autocracy moves in the direction of a social democracy, while here and there Allied democracies have turned to dictatorships. And those who have not are looking wistfully over their shoulders at the swift efficiencies of the new Napoleons who have arisen in neighboring states.

The only victories that are clear and clean are moral victories that won their way to power by the convincing value of a deeper insight.

More "Good Will Flyers"

Oakland Tribune

Bird lovers will appreciate what Ernest G. Holt means when he says the warblers and shore birds were the first "good will flyers" of Pan America. Many of them summer in the United States and winter down there in the republics recently visited by Colonel Lindbergh.

To study the birds which have their winter home in Venezuela, Dr. Holt will head an expedition to be sent out by the National Geographic society. He will find fine motor roads and leave them for unexplored areas south of the broad Orinoco.

The bird explorer is interested in the distribution of species, and to arrive at these facts he must find what species now exist in given localities. North America knows some birds, the scarlet tanager, for example, which have originated in the tropics but now are familiar to temperate climes. Certain of the West Indies Islands which are remnants of a former continental mountain chain are believed to have been the highways for the dispersal of various kinds of birds. Further studies will determine these and hundreds of other facts dear to the students of bird lore, which facts also may shed light upon the making and changing over of our continent at various geologic times.

In the course of his study Holt will amass photographs and collections of such wonder birds as the scarlet ibis with its brilliant red plumage which is the envy of the textile dye maker; the Cock-of-the-Rock with its curious double crest, formed of two groups of feathers pressed together; and the ungainly Jabiru Stork, with its white plumage and naked black head and neck, which stands higher than our sandhill crane.

Overland Broadway In Prospect

Pasadena Star-News

Southern California is to be represented, in force, by motoring and good roads enthusiasts at the convention of the Broadway of America Association at Memphis, Tenn. A big motorcade of Californians is on the way to the convention. The objective of the convention is to boost the all-year national highway—a projected Broadway transcontinental highway from New York to San Diego, traversable the year around in all weathers. This ambitious proposal is meeting with hearty support all along the proposed course. Southern Californians in general and San Diegans in particular are very enthusiastic over it.

A great highway of the kind planned would be of more than mere sentimental value. It would give impetus to transcontinental travel by automobile at all seasons. California, in particular, would benefit immensely from this development. A great, wide roadway across the continent—a connected, highly improved thoroughfare—would attract attention throughout the world. It would be traveled very extensively, without doubt. And it would promote the permanent improvement of highways all over the country.

There is no more delightful method of traveling around the country than by automobile. Such traveling permits families or groups to go wherever they desire, to digress from main highways, at will, and to travel as fast or as slowly as they may desire. The volume of automobile sightseeing traffic increases, year after year.
